Annual Report 2025

To Everything There is A Season

DEDICATION A Fountain of Positivity

The 2025 Annual Report is proudly dedicated to Jenni Fountain, TEEG's beloved Fiscal Administrator.

Jenni joined TEEG in 1996, and over 28+ years, her unwavering commitment has been a constant in every stage of our agency's journey. Whether it was answering the phone, facilitating a parent-child playgroup, administering grants, or managing our financial health, Jenni's wisdom and dedication are a legacy that will carry TEEG forward for many years to come.

It is with tremendous love and honor that we wish Jenni congratulations on her well-deserved retirement!

Cover Rendering Of New Building

A big thanks to our partners at LLB Architects who prepared our architectural plans. The team at LLB was patient and diligent and they created a great vision for what our proposed Community Food Center building will look like. We are looking forward to working with LLB to make the building a reality.

Honoring Our Past, Shaping Our Future

As TEEG approaches its 40th anniversary, this season invites us to pause and reflect—not just on the years that have passed, but on the people, partnerships, and purpose that have shaped our journey. From our humble beginnings to the robust programs we offer today, TEEG has always listened to the needs of our community and responded with creativity, compassion, and care.

Each chapter of our story is woven with the threads of time—moments of challenge, growth, and transformation that continue to guide us forward. Our 2025 annual report, To Everything There Is a Season, reminds us that every era holds meaning. Our legacy is built on enduring values, and our future is full of promise. As we look ahead, we remain rooted in service, ready to grow, adapt, and continue connecting resources with those who need them most.

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR'S MESSAGE

Rooted in Time, Growing Through Community

I first joined TEEG nine years ago, and what a journey it has been. My early days began distributing food from the small, maze-like basement in our former 65 Main Street location. We were just beginning to plan the construction of our current building and reaching out to volunteers for support. Students from Ellis Technical School joined us, lending their skills in plumbing and electrical work, alongside countless community members who generously gave their time and talents.

The way our Thatcher Road building came together was truly remarkable. There was no capital campaign, just the power of social capital. Businesses donated goods and services, and volunteers helped with tasks large and small. I vividly remember standing in what is now our food market, assembling donated library shelves to store food, surrounded by freshly finished walls and floors. People would stop by regularly, unprompted, simply asking, "What do you need today?"

Fast forward to today: TEEG has outgrown our space, and we're excited to announce the proposed TEEG Community Food Center. This new facility, to be built right on our campus, will expand our capacity to receive, process, and distribute food to our clients and community partners. While this project will involve a formal build with a contractor, we will always honor the spirit and history that brought us here.

Over the years, TEEG's connections within the community have only grown stronger. The dedication of our staff and Board of Directors—working together to improve lives—is a constant source of inspiration. TEEG remains committed to being a trusted organization that helps families and individuals live healthier, more connected lives throughout our region.

BOARD PRESIDENT Turn, Turn, Turn

"To everything there is a season and a time to every purpose under heaven." The Byrds

Like the uplifting lyrics that defined a generation, TEEG's purpose is to lift up and empower people in Northeastern Connecticut.

Over time, we have borne witness to four decades of seasons. Periods of nurturing, growth, harvest, and rest. Through it all, the Board, staff, volunteers, and the supporters all come together to continually replenish the seeds of hope, resilience, and sustainability.

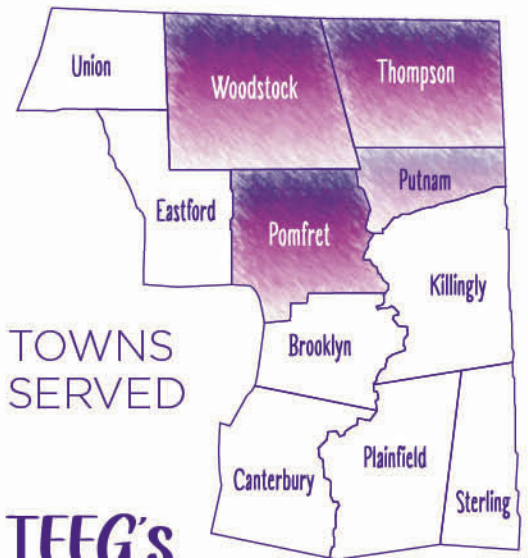

Since TEEG's founding, we have evolved from a tiny grassroots organization in a small residential building to a purpose-built facility in 2012. Since then, with continued growth, our community building is bursting at the seams. TEEG's next chapter will be a future expansion to build a food hub annex.

As we move forward, let us cherish the lessons of seasons past, join in the commitment to grow, and revel in the joy of new beginnings.

With gratitude and anticipation of the seasons to come.

EMPOWERING INDIVIDUALS AND

Encouraging The Potential of Youth

From your first day of life (even before) through your teenage years, TEEG youth programs develop positive social skills and assist young people of all ages in recognizing natural supports.

Our programs have evolved over time to be a pillar of support and guide youth through the progression of development.

TEEG's Hand in Hand program, designed for new caregivers, offers mentoring to support and assist with bonding and development.

Parent/Child Playgroup provides community connections and partnership in navigating caregiving through the first 5 years of life.

As youth grow, our Youth Service Bureau (YSB) works closely with families and local schools to understand the needs of those we want to serve and work alongside, offering volunteer opportunities, socialization in a supportive and therapeutic setting, attendance support, and individualized programming as they transition into adulthood.

A time to learn...

STRENGTHENING FAMILIES

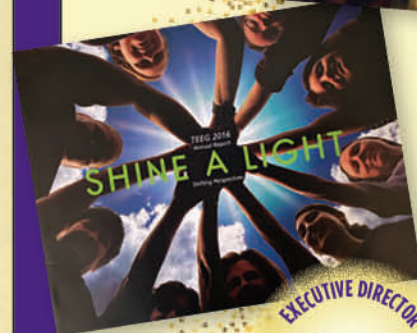

Tapping The Wisdom of Elders

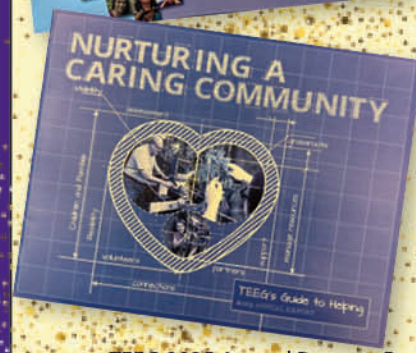

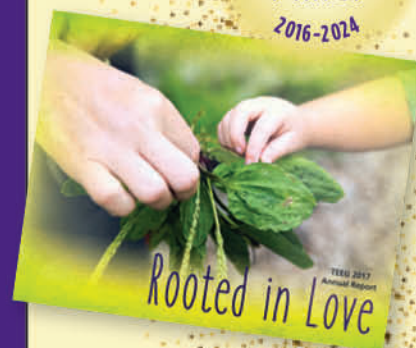

In early 2024, the Community Arts Collective, led by Sue Scott began at the Pomfret Senior Center. The goal was to gather a representation of the community and create a tribute to the times and seasons shared together.

The program meets twice a month, using prompts, pictures, and other mediums to guide writing by stimulating memory, focus, and connections with others. Chronicling older adults' past experiences is therapeutic, helping to preserve their legacy, and to find a sense of purpose and possibly closure through reflection.

The first Community Arts Collective book, "We Better Write it Down," was published in the fall of 2024 and dedicated to Elfriede Kern, a long-time member of the Pomfret Senior Center who passed away during the writing process. This book, and the writing process, helped cross the invisible lines between the crafters, the gamers, and the observers. The second book should be available by Christmas 2025.

Connecting Resources

TEEG is dedicated to fostering sustainable community connections by leveraging resources such as markets, farms, and gardens to address food security and promote healthy living. By supporting our local businesses and farmers, they support us!

Our local CSA partners include Fairholm Farm, New Boston Beef, Five Sisters Farm, and Unbound Glory. These relationships provide recurring deliveries of fresh produce and meat for our community, ensuring consistent access to nutritious, locally sourced food.

The TEEG Community Garden is a model of growth and transformation, showcasing sustainable practices and providing a space for individuals to learn how to cultivate their own food.

Our vision includes creating space for hydroponics, a sustainable farming method, and ensuring fresh produce for our community throughout the year, with hands-on involvement that promotes education, empowerment, and self-sufficiency. This not only addresses immediate needs but also invests in long-term community well-being.

Engaging the Community

At TEEG, we believe that a strong community is built through connection, support, and opportunity.

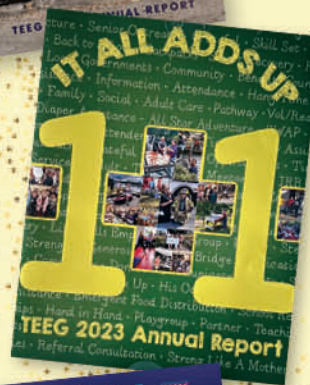

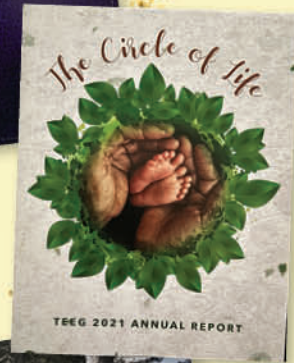

Our Community Connection Series is designed to offer free, meaningful programming to the community in which we live and work. These programs are designed not only to inform but to empower, helping to guide participants through life's journey and strengthen family bonds.

In the past, we have offered classes in cooking, mindfulness, budgeting, skill-building, prosocial activities, and more. The free seasonal programs are more than a one-time resource – they are an opportunity to learn something new and build sustainable relationships.

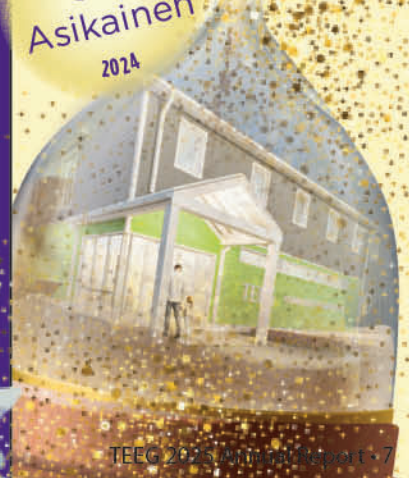

Relationships between children and adults, seniors and youth, neighbors and community partners. Through this series, we create ongoing opportunities for people to connect, learn, and lean on each other.

With six events annually, each focused on a different subject, our Community Connection series responds to community needs and evolves with fresh topics. Stay tuned for what's on the horizon!

A time to love...

Timeless Generosity

Our work wouldn't be possible without the steady flow of volunteers and in-kind supporters. Some have been with us for years, while others are just beginning their journey.

Regardless of longevity, their time, talents, and generosity are vital to our work. You are part of our history and our future; the foundation that allows us to grow, adapt, and continue delivering resources to our community.

As Time Goes On... Ways to Give to TEEG

With a clear vision to be a community that aspires to care for and support one another, TEEG is committed to empowering individuals to live independently, strengthening families to live respectfully, engaging the community to work collaboratively, and connecting resources to promote a better future for all.

- ♥ Follow TEEG on social media, explore our website at www.teegonline.org, or visit our office in Thompson.
- ♥ Join us at annual and pop-up events in Thompson, Pomfret, Putnam, and Woodstock.
- ♥ Give a monetary gift in any amount that supports our mission to help neighbors in need.

Telling Our Story Over Time

Award-winning annual reports such as this don't just happen! TEEG is grateful for the creative team of Laura Moorehead, and Mary Ann and Kyle Dostaler. They have helped us produce this publication from concept to layout and final product for 20+ years—all with artistry, creativity, and friendship! Thank you for your dedication to our organization.

When you make your contribution to TEEG this year, let us know which Annual Report has been your favorite!
